

even acknowledge revolutionary changes taking place in society.

While I did not agree with everything he said, he was right that attorneys cannot function as elite professionals in a vacuum.

Obviously today's world is much more complicated than just a few years ago. It was much easier to give advice. As often as not, SJA advice was more confined to military criminal law and a few community matters.

The end of the Cold War has contributed to changing this.

Commanders now find themselves anywhere in the world—assigned any number of unusual missions.—Reducing street crime on the streets of Port 'A Prince, or guarding refugees in Panama—the different scenarios are endless.

In the past the SJA was always considered part of the special staff. A specialist who could keep to himself. No more the SJA has become a member of the commander's battle staff. He plays a role—like that of the G2—assessing the battlefield—identifying potential legal, and ethical landmines.

In Panama, Haiti, Somalia, and Rwanda our SJAs are one of the most important staff members, helping their commanders avoid these landmines.—Stepping forward and guiding them through these minefields.

It is in this regard I would ask you to do ever more. In this period of resource constraints, we need our attorneys more than ever—to keep stepping forward.

Help us streamline our processes.—Not something lawyers are well-known for doing, but vitally important. Help make the rules and procedures more understandable—more accessible—and more relevant to the needs of your commander.

The law, ethically applied and sensibly interpreted—invariably is fair and makes sense. And your role in interpreting and applying the law, if anything, is more important today than ever before.

Let me close by thanking each of you for what you've done up to now, what you're doing this week, what you must keep doing in order to keep our Army the finest in the world.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE LIFE-LONG CIVIC ACHIEVEMENTS OF HAMILTON C. FORMAN

HON. PETER DEUTSCH

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, January 3, 1996

Mr. DEUTSCH. Mr. Speaker, for the past 50 years in Broward County, one man has been at the forefront of civic progress in South Florida. Whether it was a fight for the preservation of the Everglades or the integration of our schools, Hamilton C. Forman has taken a leading role in finding solutions to our communities' problems. In recognition of these civic accomplishments, the B'nai B'rith Foundation of the United States is awarding Hamilton Forman the Great American Traditions Award on Saturday, January 6.

The Hamilton Forman story began in the rural section of Broward County during the pre-Depression era. His family worked as dairy farmers in an isolated section of the county. Yet, even though Hamilton Forman grew up in a remote section of Broward County, it did not restrain him from devising a clear vision on how he wanted Broward County, his home, to develop. He wanted to create a booming economy in South Florida built around warm weather and migration. With this idea in mind, he invested a good portion of his life's savings in real estate located across the region. By the end of World War II he had amassed hundreds of acres of local real estate and established himself as a role model for entrepreneurial success and civic involvement.

But the achievements of Hamilton C. Forman over the last 50 years cannot simply be summarized by saying that he was instrumental in building a hospital or that he donated money and time to a charitable organization. The primary contribution Hamilton C. Forman has given to South Florida is that he has repeatedly offered his services to the community over the last 50 years. It is this rare example of continued leadership and civic involvement that I wish to pay special tribute to today. Since World War II, Hamilton Forman has chosen to involve himself in a wide array of issues facing our diverse society and I would like to take this time to thank him for this untiring involvement in the welfare of South Florida.

IN HONOR OF MAY AARONSON

HON. CONSTANCE A. MORELLA

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, January 3, 1996

Mrs. MORELLA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to call attention to my constituent, May Aaronson, of Chevy Chase, MD, who will celebrate her 84th birthday on January 6.

When May was 45, after raising three children and volunteering in many community activities, May Aaronson enrolled in college. She went on to graduate at the top of her class at Howard University and then embarked on a 31-year career at the National Institute of Mental Health in the field of early child development. Her work there has had lasting impact on the health and well-being of countless children, especially at-risk youngsters.

She helped to create a model in-home education program for at-risk preschoolers; she authored a book for young parents on how to raise a healthy infant; and she coauthored and authored measurement tools for parent and child behavior and interaction. In her work for the Department of Health and Human Services she reviewed and oversaw grants in the area of Early Child Development and helped create a national network of information sharing about programs providing services for young children. She also created a screening test, the Children At Risk Screener, to aid in the important task of identifying preschoolers who need early educational, psychological or medical intervention. This typifies her work as it combines her creativity with practicality in designing a test in the form of a game that can be administered in less than 10 minutes.

May Aaronson is also proud of the accomplishments and contributions of her children: Doris Aaronson, a professor of psychology at New York University; David Aaronson, a professor of law at American University; and Jean Rosenfeld, a clinical social worker.

Two years ago, at the age of 82, she retired. As May celebrates her 84th birthday, she studies computer science, and she works as a volunteer on the Montgomery County Hotline, reaching out to those in need.

Mr. Speaker, May Aaronson is a role model for women, for senior citizens, and for all Americans. Please join me in celebrating the birthday of this remarkable woman!

THANK YOU MR. DIJOSEPH

HON. JACK QUINN

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, January 3, 1996

Mr. QUINN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in memory of Elma Town Supervisor John F. DiJoseph.

John DiJoseph tirelessly dedicated his life to the enhancement of the Elma community, and proved himself to be extraordinarily available to his constituents, or as he thought of Elma's citizens, friends.

Since 1975, Mr. John DiJoseph has been involved in his community's local politics and various community organizations, including Celebrity Waiters Dinner for the Leukemia Society, Kiwanis, Elma Historical Society, Executive Committee of the New York State Association of Towns, Erie County Association of Town Governments, Elma Conservation Club, Erie County Agricultural Society, Elma Fire Council, Elma Fire Companies, Elma Community Council Services, Saint Vincent de Paul Roman Catholic Church, and others too numerous to mention.

In 1980, John DiJoseph first served the Town of Elma in public office as Councilman, and served in that capacity with distinction until 1986, when he became Town Supervisor. As Supervisor, John DiJoseph will best be remembered by his community, as the Elma Town Board Proclamation so eloquently stated, as someone "to strive to emulate his total dedication to family and to his extended family, and the citizens of Elma."

Mr. Speaker, today I would like to join with the citizens of Elma, and indeed, the entire western New York Community, to honor Mr. John F. DiJoseph, who is survived by his wife, Shirley; his children, John, Jr., Michael, and Norine; his parents, Frank and Mary; his brother, Patrick; and sister, Lauren for his distinguished service to the Town of Elma.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. JIM LIGHTFOOT

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, January 3, 1996

Mr. LIGHTFOOT. Speaker, due to my son's hospitalization I was unable to be present and voting on January 3, 1996.

Had I been present I would have voted in favor of overriding the veto of H.R. 1530, the National Defense Authorization Act and in favor of overriding the veto of H.R. 2076, the Commerce, Justice, State, and the Judiciary Appropriations Act.

SUPPORT GEPHARDT MOTION

HON. GLENN POSHARD
